

Inglewood TODAY

Your Community Connection

WM Waste Management
Our solutions make environmental — and financial sense.

TRAVEL	SPORTS	OTHER NEWS	OPINION	LIVING	LEAD STORY	HEALTH	FEATURED
--------	--------	------------	---------	--------	------------	--------	----------

CURRENT EDITION BUSINESS SUBSCRIPTION Tuesday, January 10, 2012 8:47 pm

MILLENNIUM EXECUTES EXPANDED EDUCATIONAL PARTNERSHIP WITH LEADING UNIVERSITIES TO BENEFIT FUTURE INGLEWOOD & SOUTH BAY YOUTH

Community Eye Featured Inglewood Police Department News Sports — August 12, 2011

Millennium Momentum Foundation, Inc. (MMF) Founder & CEO Jason L. Seward executed a historical educational partnership MOU with Pepperdine University, University of Southern California and California State University, Dominguez Hills. The historical ceremony took place at the 2011 Millennium Momentum Foundation, Inc. President's Summer Benefit Reception last month. The expanded higher education partnerships will position MMF to now couple extensive training in its State-of-the-Art Leadership Development Institute with academic scholarships, college admissions support, and other customized resources for Inglewood and South Bay Cities students to pursue undergraduate and/or graduate public policy education at these leading institutions.

MMF, a nonprofit organization has become one the leading providers of leadership development training in the Nation as it continues to achieve its mission to increase the number of students and young adults from various ethnic backgrounds in public service fields through higher education financial aid, mentoring, and leadership development training. The organization achieves its mission by serving as a resource bridge between educational institutions and the workplace, while providing over $45,000.00 annually in academic scholarship benefits through its Best & Brightest Scholarship Program and an array of leadership development and professional support services through its State-of-the-Art Leadership Development Institute that positions young people in the South Bay to transition effectively from the classroom to the workplace. The organization has achieved a compelling 85% employment matriculation rate and a 96% college graduation rate among program participants completing service delivery from 2004 to 2010.

CAPTION (Left to Right): Leonard Mitchell; USC School of Policy, Planning & Development Professor, Greg Saks; CSUDH Vice President of University Advancement, Sheryl Kelso; Assistant Dean of Administration at Pepperdine University School of Public Policy, Jody Brightman; Pepperdine University School of Public Policy Career Services Director, Jason L. Seward, Founder & CEO of MMF; and Melinda Vanhemert, Assistant Dean of Student Services for Pepperdine University School of Public Policy. Excited MMF Leadership Development Institute students look on in background during historical ceremony

RELATED ARTICLES

SHARE

SPONSORS

Rethink Possible
att.com/rethinkpossible

OUR CITY

OBAMA TO THE NATION

